

PERNIGOTTI INTENDS TO STAY IN ITALY

Novi Ligure (Alessandria), 8th November 2018 – Following the news regarding the announcement of the closure of the Novi Ligure plant, Pernigotti S.p.A. (“Pernigotti”) clarifies that the Company intends to maintain the production in Italy with support of national partners.

Therefore, as already stated during the meeting with Trade Unions and employee representatives, to guarantee the preservation of Pernigotti's historic brand, the Company is looking for industrial partners in Italy capable of guaranteeing the high quality that has characterized the Pernigotti products from company's early stages. At the same time Pernigotti will explore all options to support the possible relocation of as many employees as possible in companies operating in the same sector or subcontractors.

Pernigotti S.p.A is already talking with several Italian companies, leaders in confectionery and semi-finished products.

Pernigotti S.p.A.

Pernigotti is the the Novi Ligure-based producer, distributor and seller of confectionary products and chocolates. The Company has 186 employees distributed among the Novi Ligure and Milan's offices.

Contacts for media

iCorporate

Melissa Lovisetto/Arturo Salerni

pernigotti@icorporate.it

02.4678 748/749